

Battle of Britain Day

15th September.

Commemorating the most far reaching and internationally significant victory of British forces in world history.

On Sunday the 14th September at 2pm.

Poulton le Fylde Royal Air Force cadets with their commanding officer Ft. Lt. Antony De Domenico*

Will parade in Market Square to receive a celebratory address by the Town Crier and a blessing from the vicar of St Chads, the Rev. Canon Martin Keighley.

All in the presence of the Mayor of Wyre, Councillor Steve Nicholls*

Who will lay a wreath at the war memorial on our behalf.

The public are encouraged to attend and to join in marking the greatest day in the history of the Royal Air Force.